

These Cruise FAQ's contain important information regarding your Cruise and form part of the "Passage Contract" (despite the FAQs themselves not creating obligations, duties, or warranties on the part of MSC Cruises. The Passage Contract is agreement that you as the Passenger have entered or will enter with MSC Cruises, the terms of which are evidenced by the Booking Terms and Conditions ("STCs") together with the Contract of Carriage and the answers to the FAQs, which together all form part of the Passage Contract. The most updated information will always be available on our website www.msccruises.co.za

MSC Cruises endeavours to update and verify the information contained in the FAQs as often as possible, it is, however, the responsibility of the Passenger to verify the contents hereof. Should there be any conflict between the contents of the FAQs, and the STCs and/or the Contract of Carriage, the terms and conditions contained in the STCs, and Contract of Carriage will take precedence. Accordingly, Passengers MUST NOT solely rely on these FAQs or treat these FAQs as a substitute for the STCs and Contract of Carriage.

Careful planning will go a long way in ensuring that this is your most memorable holiday, so we recommend that you take a little time to go through our list of "Frequently Asked Questions" to let us help you create your own checklist.

How can I stay in touch with friends and family back home?

You can contact our office on 011 844 6073. On board communication facilities: Internet facilities are available onboard at a charge. We suggest you stay connected by purchasing a pre-paid internet package either in the 'Manage Booking' area on our website (pre-paid packages) or by calling our Contact Centre.

- "My Choice" dining is assigned to guests booked on the Aurea Experience.

32) Is the General Emergency Drill compulsory?

A General Emergency Drill for all Passengers and crew will be held before the Ship sets sail. Your attendance is compulsory according to International Safety Laws. Please listen very carefully to all the announcements and read the emergency instructions posted behind the Cabin door. During the Emergency Drill all the Cruise Ship's services will be closed.

33) Are landings guaranteed?

No, as any landing is weather dependent, and the sea conditions dictate whether a successful landing can proceed or not. The captain (Master) has the final say as to whether a landing can proceed or not, based on the information he has regarding sea and weather conditions, and with the safety of the Passengers and staff onboard as his primary concern.

34) Do I need to take bath and beach towels?

Bath towels and pool/beach towels are available on board.

35) What is the Dress Code?

Please refer to our website on www.msccruises.co.za/manage-booking/before-you-go

36) What is the smoking policy onboard?

In line with global standards, smoking areas on board are fewer than non-smoking areas and are indicated by signage and ashtrays.

Smoking (including e-cigarettes) is not permitted in cabins, on cabin balconies and anywhere not expressly indicated by signage and ashtrays.

The Company reserves the right to levy a fee should passengers be found smoking in non-designated areas of the vessel. Repeatedly smoking in non-smoking areas can ultimately lead to disembarkation.

We remind you that throwing cigarette butts or anything else overboard at sea is strictly prohibited as it may seriously put in danger safety at sea.

37) Kettles, coffee, and water in cabins

There are no kettles, coffee, or tea facilities in the cabins as they pose a fire hazard onboard a cruise ship. Bottled water is available in the cabins (this forms part of the mini bar, which if consumed is charged to your onboard account with other minibar charges). There are tea, coffee and water stations found around the ship that you can make use of free of charge.

38) Safes

There are safes available in the cabins.

39) Gym

Access to the onboard gym is free. You are required to wear the correct training shoes when entering the gym.
